OHSU Funding Alerts: Week of September 28, 2023

OHSU Funding Opportunities

Multidisciplinary || OHSU Foundation Collins Medical Trust
What: Provides seed funding up to $30,000 for projects that advance health-related research, including basic laboratory science, clinical research, and public health investigations. Competitive candidates are early career investigators with salary support from their departments who are clearly supported by their mentor(s) and proposing projects that position them for NIH or other substantial funding. Successful proposals highlight impact on the immediate population served, Oregon, and potential national impact
Who should apply: Early career investigators, including postdoctoral fellows and assistant professors, who are clearly supported by their mentors
Award: Up to $30,000/one year
Deadline: Notice of Intent form is required (form window open: Sept. 22-29, 2023); Application due: Dec. 8, 2023

Neuroscience || Oregon Alzheimer’s Disease Research Center Research Scholars
What: Support for junior investigators as they pursue research careers in Alzheimer’s Disease and related dementias, and normal brain aging; funding provides discretionary support for career development, equipment, salary support, or other expenses and includes an educational program, individualized mentored opportunities and access to senior-level faculty for consultation and mentoring support
Who should apply: Doctoral candidates, postdoctoral fellows, or early-career faculty; investigators from communities underrepresented in research are especially encouraged to apply Award: $10,000/one year (with potential for a second year dependent on funding)
Deadline: Oct. 18, 2023, 5 p.m. PT
Contact Natasha Spoden for more information

Cardiovascular || Knight Cardiovascular Institute Postdoctoral Fellowship for training in Cardiovascular Research and Translational Science
What: Funds postdoctoral scientists for two years to train and be mentored by highly accomplished clinical and basic research scientists who are renowned for applying cutting edge scientific ideas to improve human health Who should apply: Trainees must have a graduate degree and either be a United States citizen, a non-citizen national of the United States, or have Permanent Resident status. Award: $12,200 per year toward benefits, $4500 per year in tuition support, and $1,400 in travel funds to attend at least one conference per year/two years. Deadline: Oct. 30, 2023; fellowship starts on Jan. 1, 2024. Send questions to Nabil Alkayed.

Neuroscience || OHSU Department of Neurology Neuroscience Campaign Fund to Support Brain Health Across the Lifespan
What: Supports projects from any area of neuroscience research pertaining to brain health across the lifespan (basic, translational, or clinical); the goal of this opportunity is to create pilot or feasibility data that will lead to outside funding, including proposals from K awardees who need additional funding to generate data for R01s or similar. Who should apply: All OHSU neuroscience researchers in good standing; applicants are not limited to those within the Department of Neurology, and trainees are excluded from being the PI. Award: Up to $50,000/one year. Deadline: Oct. 30, 2023. Send questions to funding@ohsu.edu; apply through the CAP.

Cancer || International Alliance for Cancer Early Detection Project Award
What: Supports small scale proposals for high-risk research with some preliminary data and larger proposals building on previously established research; priority areas include enabling interception, hereditary cancers and risk prediction, inequalities in cancer detection, and early detection in low and middle income countries. Who should apply: Applicants must be named Alliance Members of one of the following institutions: Canary Center at Stanford University, the University of Cambridge, the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute, University College London or The University of Manchester. Award: Up to $630,000/up to three years. Deadline: Intent to submit due: Nov. 30, 2023; Application due: Jan. 19, 2024. Multidisciplinary || OCTRI Mobile Apps for Clinical Studies (MACS)
What: Funding to leverage MyCap to create mobile apps that allow clinical study participants to report data via a smartphone. Who should apply: PIs who want to create a mobile app for clinical or commercial purposes. Award: Up to $5,000/typically one year. Deadline: Rolling; application will close when funding for the fiscal year is exhausted. Apply through REDCap.

Multidisciplinary || OHSU Fellowship for Diversity in Research
What: Funds researchers with the goal of increasing the diversity of the community of scholars devoted to academic scientific research at OHSU. Who should apply: Individuals requiring mentored postdoctoral training in order to achieve their career goals; priority is given to applicants who have obtained their PhD (or are soon to defend) and are not currently OHSU trainees (e.g., graduate students or postdoctoral trainees); should be within the first two years of their position at OHSU. Award: Provides salary for one year and $5,000 for professional development. Deadline: Applications accepted anytime; apply through the CAP.

Limited Submission Opportunities
Neuroscience || Brain Research Foundation 2023 Seed Grant Program
What: Provides start-up money for new and innovative neuroscience research projects that could be competitive for an NIH grant or other external funding sources

Who should apply: Full-time assistant or associate professors working in the area of studies of brain function

Award: Up to $80,000/up to two years

Deadline: Internal submission due: Sept. 28, 2023; LOI due: Nov. 21, 2023, 2 p.m. PT;
Application due: March 7, 2024, 2 p.m. PT

Apply through the CAP

Multidisciplinary || Blavatnik Family Foundation 2024 National Awards for Young Scientists

What: Supports young scientists across the US by recognizing excellence in life sciences, physical sciences and engineering, and chemistry

Who should apply: Researchers who were born in or after 1982, hold a tenured or tenure-track academic faculty position (or equivalent) and conduct research as a principal investigator in one of the disciplinary categories

Award: $250,000 in unrestricted funds

Deadline: Internal submission due: Oct. 2, 2023; Application due: Nov. 29, 2023

Apply through the CAP

Multidisciplinary || Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation Moore Inventor Fellows

What: Supports outstanding inventors and innovators who harness science and technology to enhance the conduct of scientific research, strengthen environmental conservation or improve the experience and outcomes of patient care; OHSU can nominate up to two applicants

Who should apply: Faculty, research scientists, postdocs or other full-time staff who are no more than 10 years past receiving their terminal advanced degree in their field

Award: Up to $675,000/up to three years

Deadline: Internal submission due: Oct. 5, 2023; Nomination due: Nov. 14, 2023, 5 p.m. PT; Application due: Dec. 13, 2023, 5 p.m. PT

Deadline updated

Multidisciplinary || G. Harold and Leila Y. Mathers Foundation Research Grants

What: Supports basic science, ideally with potential translational applications; examples of current research areas of interest include: immunology, microbiome, genomics, structural biology, cellular physiology, and neuroscience

Who should apply: Open to investigators who are performing basic scientific research with translational potential; institutions are limited to four applications per cycle

Award: Grant budgets should be no more than $600,000-750,000 (including indirect expenses)/up to three years

Deadline: Internal submission due: Oct. 19, 2023; Portal registration due: Nov. 17, 2023; LOI due: Dec. 1, 2023; Application due: March 1, 2024

Apply through the CAP

Neuroscience || Multiple NIH Organizations

NIH Blueprint and BRAIN Initiative Program for Enhancing Neuroscience Diversity through Undergraduate Research Education Experiences (BP BRAIN-ENDURE) (R25 Clinical Trial Not Allowed)

What: Supports educational activities with a primary focus on: courses for skills development, research experiences, and mentoring activities

Who should apply: Collaborative research education partnerships should include institutions that either have a historical and current mission to educate students from any of the populations that have been identified as underrepresented in biomedical research as defined by the National Science Foundation or have a documented track record of recruiting, training and/or educating, and graduating underrepresented students as defined by NSF; extensive eligibility info in NOFO

Award: Average cost per program is estimated between $300,000 - $400,000/up to five years

Deadline: Internal submission due: Nov. 15, 2023; LOI due: Jan. 15, 2023 (LOI not required but highly encouraged); Application due: Feb. 15, 2024, 5 p.m. PT

Merit Prizes and Awards

Ophthalmology || Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology Kreissig Award for Excellence in Retinal Surgery
What: Recognizes the next generation of curious, enterprising investigators who seek to optimize functional outcomes for patients needing retinal surgery
Who should apply: Clinician-investigators specializing in the retina who have been practicing at least 10 years as a fully trained ophthalmologist specialist in the posterior segment surgery of the eye, are ARVO members and are age 55 or younger
Award: $30,000
Deadline: Oct. 1, 2023

Immunology || Michelson Philanthropies & Science
Prize for Immunology
What: Recognizes young investigators from disciplines including computer science, artificial intelligence/machine learning, nanotechnology, genomics, parasitology and tropical medicine, neurodegenerative diseases, and gene editing, who apply their expertise to perform research that has an impact on vaccine and immunotherapy
Who should apply: Researchers who are no older than 35, hold an MD, PhD, or MD/PhD at the time of entry, and whose research was performed during the previous three years
Award: $30,000 for grand prize winner and $10,000 for runners up
Deadline: Oct. 1, 2023

Multidisciplinary || University of Pittsburgh
Dickson Prize in Medicine
What: Recognizes an American biomedical researcher who has made significant, progressive contributions to medicine; nominations should be made for individuals actively engaged in innovative, paradigm-shifting biomedical research that is worthy of significant and broad attention
Who should apply: Researchers who are U.S. citizens whose careers have been building, who are at an especially productive point currently, and whose research is so influential that it deserves major recognition now
Award: $50,000
Deadline: Oct. 13, 2023

Multidisciplinary || BioInnovation Institute & Science
Prize for Innovation
What: Recognizes researchers who are asking fundamental questions at the intersection of the life sciences and entrepreneurship and scientists who can show that they have reached across field boundaries with an enthusiasm that combines outstanding basic science with an eye toward the marketplace
Who should apply: Researchers who have finished their PhD-level education within the last 10 years and must hold an MD, PhD, DVM, PharmD., or combination of these degrees at the time of entry
Award: $25,000 for grand prize winner and $10,000 for runners up
Deadline: Nov. 1, 2023

Multidisciplinary || Northwestern University
Feinberg School of Medicine Mechthild Esser Nemmers Prize in Medical Science
What: Honors a physician-scientist whose body of research exhibits outstanding achievement in medical science as demonstrated by works of lasting significance
Who should apply: Physician-scientists; individuals of all nationalities and institutional affiliations are eligible except current or recent Northwestern University faculty members and recipients of the Nobel Prize
Award: $350,000
Deadline: Nov. 1, 2023

Neuroscience || National Multiple Sclerosis Society and the American Academy of Neurology
John Dystel Prize for Multiple Sclerosis Research
What: Recognizes outstanding contributions to research in the understanding, treatment, or prevention of multiple sclerosis
Who should apply: Nominees must be actively engaged in basic or clinical research related to multiple sclerosis
Award: $40,000
Deadline: Nov. 2, 2023

New this week!
Multidisciplinary || Warren Alpert Foundation
Prize
What: Recognizes scientists whose scientific research achievements have led to the prevention, cure or treatment of human
Dentistry || NIDCR Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): NIDCR Support for Research on the Physiological Involvement of Oral Cavity in Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)
What: Supports research studies focused on the physiological involvement of oral cavity and oral manifestations related to COVID-19
Who should apply: Anyone with a research interest in COVID-19 and oral manifestations Award: Dependent upon FOA
Deadline: LOI due: Oct. 8, 2023 (LOI not required but highly encouraged); Application due: Nov. 8, 2023, 5 p.m. PT

Neuroscience || NINDS Analysis of data in the COVID-19 Neuro Databank-Biobank (R03 - Clinical Trial Not Allowed)
What: Funding for applications that aggregate and analyze existing data in the COVID-19 Neuro Databank-Biobank
Who should apply: Anyone with a research interest in the effects of COVID-19 on pre-existing neurological conditions
Award: Up to $100,000/up to two years
Deadline: LOI due: Oct. 8, 2023 (LOI not required but highly encouraged); Application due: Nov. 8, 2023, 5 p.m. PT

Multidisciplinary || Multiple NIH
Organizations Improving Choice, Use, and Equitable Implementation of Biomedical HIV Prevention for Women (R01 Clinical Trial Optional)
What: Funding to understand factors that impact uptake and adherent and persistent use of biomedical HIV prevention options, to inform and advance approaches to support choice and use among these options, and to understand and advance equitable delivery of biomedical HIV prevention options for cisgender and transgender women in settings where multiple prevention options are available; see also RFA-MH-24-331 and RFA-MH-24-332
Who should apply: Anyone with a research interest in biomedical HIV prevention Award: Not limited/up to five years
Deadline: LOI due: Oct. 22, 2023 (LOI not required but highly encouraged); Application due: Nov. 22, 2023, 5 p.m. PT
Who should apply: Anyone with a research interest in effective programs to prevent the initiation of substance use, misuse and disorder Award: Not limited but recommended to request no more than $4 million/up to five years Deadline: LOI due: Dec. 17, 2023 (LOI not required but highly encouraged); Application due: Jan. 17, 2024, 5 p.m. PT

Requests for Information

Multidisciplinary || NCATS Request for Information (RFI): Inviting Input on NCATS’ Strategic Plan for 2024-2029

Cancer || NCI Request for Information (RFI): Identifying Opportunities to Generate

Research Molecular Characterization Data for the Childhood Cancer Data Initiative (CCDI)

Nursing || NIINR Request for Information (RFI): Advancing Nursing Research in Climate and Health

Other Federal and State Opportunities

Multidisciplinary || Women in Science PDX Professional Development Scholarships
What: Scholarships to enable Oregon graduate students to enhance their career development by attending conferences, workshops, courses, and related opportunities
Who should apply: STEM graduate students in Oregon (Master’s or PhD) of any historically marginalized gender (including cisgender women, transgender women, transgender men, non-binary individuals, and all gender identities which have been systematically oppressed by those in power throughout history) who have not have received a WIS Professional Development Scholarship during the previous award cycle
Award: Up to $500
Deadline: Oct. 16, 2023, 11:59 p.m. PT

Private Opportunities

Cancer || Melanoma Research Alliance Research Grants
What: Supports pre-clinical, translational, and early clinical research with the potential to produce advancements in melanoma prevention, detection, diagnosis, and treatment; proposals will be accepted for Established Investigator Awards, Academic-Industry Partnership Awards, Young Investigator Awards, and Pilot Awards
Who should apply: Dependent upon award Award: Dependent upon award type Deadline: Eligibility checklists due: Oct. 20, 2023; Applications due: Nov. 3, 2023, 8:59 p.m. PT

Pharmacology || ASHP Foundation Advancing Practice and Patient Care Through Residency Expansion Program
What: Support to assist institutions with offering a new or expanded pharmacy residency position Who should apply: Nonprofit organizations, for-profit entities, and government agencies Award: Up to $25,000/not specified
Deadline: Oct. 24, 2023

Multidisciplinary || Fannie and John Hertz Foundation Hertz Fellowship
What: Provides financial and professional support to graduate students pursuing a PhD in the applied physical and biological sciences, mathematics, or engineering Who should apply: Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States; college seniors, first-year graduate students, or individuals in a gap year preparing to apply to graduate school who intend to pursue a PhD in the applied physical and biological sciences, mathematics, or engineering; and intend to direct their studies toward understanding and solving major, near-term problems facing society Award: Valued at up to $250,000/up to five years
Deadline: Oct. 27, 2023, 11:59 p.m. PT

Hematology || Aniara Diagnostica
Coagulation Research Grant
What: Supports established investigators (e.g., faculty at an academic institution) or students/trainees supporting innovative coagulation and hematology research Who should apply: Applicants are expected to have advanced degrees and to have published a minimum of three articles in peer-reviewed scientific journals; additional eligibility info in program description
Award: Up to $10,000/one year
Deadline: Nov. 1, 2023

Women’s Health || Lalor Foundation Anna
Lalor Burdick Program
What: Supports organizations that offer comprehensive sexual and reproductive health education to young women; of particular interest is programs serving young women who are disadvantaged by poverty, discrimination, geographic isolation, lack of comprehensive sex education, hostile public policy or other factors with potential to lead to inadequate sexual and reproductive health Who should apply: Anyone with a program that fits the above description; the Foundation is particularly interested in supporting new programs or initiatives or innovations in successful programs
Award: Up to $35,000/one year
Deadline: Nov. 1, 2023

Cancer || Cancer Research Institute Clinic and Laboratory Integration Program
What: Supports pre-clinical and translational research that can be directly applied to optimizing cancer immunotherapy in the clinic Who should apply: Tenure-track assistant professors or higher who are exploring clinically relevant questions aimed at improving the effectiveness of cancer immunotherapies
Award: Up to $300,000/up to two years
Deadline: LOI due: Dec. 1, 2023, 2 p.m. PT;
Application due: March 1, 2024, 2 p.m. PT

Cancer || Cancer Research Institute Lloyd J.
Old STAR Program
What: Supports provides long-term funding to mid-career scientists, giving them the freedom and flexibility to pursue high-risk, high-reward projects with expected impact on the field of cancer research.
Award: Up to $150,000/year
Deadline: Dec. 1, 2023, 2 p.m. PT

Rare Disease || SATB2 Gene Foundation
Board Research Grants
What: Supports research on SATB2-associated syndrome with priority focus on speech and language, behavior, sleep, global developmental delays, SATB2 function and expression, variations in clinical phenotypes, and therapeutic interventions Who should apply: Postdoctoral fellows, clinical fellows, researchers, physicians, or other associated research professionals with faculty appointments or research positions Award: Up to $15,000/up to one year Deadline: Nov. 1, 2023, 8:59 p.m. PT

Multidisciplinary || Chan Zuckerberg
Initiative Data Insights Cycle 3
What: Supports projects focused on advancing tools and resources that make it possible to gain greater insights into health and disease from single-cell biology datasets Who should apply: PIs and Co-PIs must be permitted to receive grant support by the organization they are applying with and each application should have a maximum of three PIs; more eligibility info in RFA Award: Up to $400,000/18 months
Deadline: Dec. 5, 2023, 5 p.m. PT
This organization is on the President’s List; submit a notice of intent form before applying

Neuroscience || Michael J. Fox Foundation
Edmond J. Safra Fellowship in Movement Disorders
What: Funding to grow the global base of movement disorder specialists by training movement disorder clinician-researchers who can provide expert care and lead scientific advances Who should apply: Academic centers, which must identify and train a new movement disorder clinician-researcher Award: Up to $180,000/two years
Deadline: Dec. 7, 2023, 2 p.m. PT
research at the forefront of discovery and innovation in cancer immunotherapy

Who should apply: Tenure-track assistant or associate professors with a minimum of three years in this position (for Jan. 15, 2024, deadline must be appointed on or before July 1, 2021)

Award: Up to $1.25 million/up to five years

Deadline: Jan. 15, 2024
